

Spotlight is a suite of budget options that links you with experienced writers, editors and industry experts for personalised feedback on your work. Writers Victoria works with a team of authors, editors and writing tutors to make sure your work is read by someone with expertise in your area.

Why Book a Spotlight?

Each service gives feedback on your work from an experienced industry professional, helping you to make your project the best it can be, whether you want to share your writing with your family, self-publish, or submit it to a commercial publisher.

The Spotlight suite complements our manuscript assessment and mentoring services. If you're considering one of those services, a Spotlight can also give you a taster of what to expect in a longer assessment or mentorship.

What to Expect

For each Spotlight service, you have the choice of receiving feedback in one of two ways:

- Written feedback: Marked-up pages + a written report of 500 words.
- OR
- Spoken feedback: Marked-up pages + a 15-minute phone/Zoom meeting (5 minutes of questions and introductions, followed by 10 minutes of document feedback).

Your feedback will be restricted to marked-up pages plus a 500-word written report, or a combination of marked-up pages plus a 15-minute phone/Zoom meeting. If you wish to receive more feedback, you may book a second Spotlight or enquire about a full assessment or mentorship through Writers Victoria.

The author's copyright over their work will be respected at all times. Writers Victoria and the expert will not use or distribute your work without your permission.

Copyright of the expert's report remains with the expert and cannot be published or otherwise used without approval.

Writers Victoria reserves the right to decline writing and payments at its sole discretion without further correspondence.
